RECONSTRUCTION OF ILTA WEBSITE

The official website of ILTA i.e., www.iltaonleather.org has been reconstructed and launched successfully on 5th November, 2025.

Some new pages have been added in this newly constructed website like Digital ILTA, 13th AICLST and some new features in the Membership Corner.

The review of the smooth accessibility of the website is under observation and will be fully accessible within a short while.

PAYMENT GATEWAY OF ILTA

ILTA is in the process of launching its Digital Payment Portal for all type of payment transactions.

The details of the same will be published in due course.

DIGITALIZATION OF ILTA PUBLICATIONS

ILTA has launched its digital platform for accessing its publication like monthly technical journal JILTA and other textbooks on leather & footwear technology.

The full online accessibility of the said publications will be intergrated along with payment details & process shortly on our official website - www.iltaonleather.org.

ILTA TO LAUNCH JOB PORTAL FOR LEATHER INDUSTRY PROFESSIONALS

The Indian Leather Technologists' Association (ILTA) on Friday said it will launch a job portal for graduates and professionals in the sector.

The portal will aim to act as a bridge between talents and industry needs, a statement said. The portal will help meet the sector's growing demand for skilled manpower, it said.

It will complement ILTA's other digital initiatives, including newly-launched website, which provide members with access journals, books, and technical resources, the statement said.

The ILTA, which is celebrating its 75th anniversary this year, organizes the LEXPO fairs to support small & medium entrepreneurs in accessing markets, it said.

LEATHER 2050: CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

ABOUT THE ORGANIZERS

Indian Leather Technologists' Association (ILTA), formerly known as "Leather Technologists' Association (India)", was formed in the year 1950 under Presidentship of Prof. B. M. Das. It was incorporated in the year 1957 under the Companies Act. During the last seventy-five years ILTA has been working towards weaving all segments of people sincerely devoted to the cause of Leather and allied Technology as well as the whole leather fraternity all over the country. ILTA represents India in the 'International Union of Leather Technologists and Chemists Societies (IULTCS)', the foremost body of its kind in the world and has been doing so ever since 1956.

Central Leather Research Institute (CLRI) was established in 1948 under the auspices of the Council of Scientific Industrial Research (CSIR) in Chennai and under first directorship of Prof. B. M. Das, to cater to the needs of the Indian leather sector. The institute since its establishment has paved the way for the move of Indian leather sector from a predominant raw material exporter to that of finished leather and leather products. Through strategic interventions with cleaner leather processing technologies, bio-based leather processing methods, composite based leather products, fashion forecasting etc. CLRI today strives to enable the global leather sector meet its challenges and seek opportunities in global leather trade.

ILTA and CLRI in association with the tanner bodies of the country take pride in being part of a massive effort in establishing Asia's largest leather complex in Kolkata, which is complete with all environmental safeguards. In the year 1999 ILTA and CLRI conducted the most successful IULTCS Congress in Chennai for the first time in an Asian country and VIII Asia International Conference of Leather Science & Technology (AICLST) in Kolkata in 2010 during the Diamond Jubilee Year of ILTA and IULTCS Congress again at Chennai in 2017.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

This time ILTA with the support of IULTCS's Asian Members China, Japan, Taiwan, Turkiye, New Zealand along with UNIDO and others has again been selected as the host of 13th AICLST which will be held at Kolkata, India as a part of its yearlong PLATINUM JUBILEE CELEBRATION during 6th–8th March, 2026.

ABOUT THE VENUE

Kolkata, popularly known as 'City of Joy' is located in Eastern India at 22°33'N, 88°20'E, 22.55°N, 88.333°E in the Ganges Delta at an elevation ranging between 1.5 m (5 ft) to 9 m (30 ft). It is spread linearly along the banks of the River Hooghly in a north-south direction. Kolkata has a tropical wet and dry climate. The annual mean temperature is 26.8° C (80.2 °F).

During the British Rule the East India Company established a strong foundation of Industrial growth based on Kolkata. The Premier and oldest Institute on Leather Technology was established at Kolkata in the year 1919 and presently this institute is known as Govt. College of Engineering & Leather Technology which has completed its Centenary Year in 2019.

Calcutta Leather Complex is the Asia's Largest Leather Complex which is complete with all environmental safe guards. Kolkata scores high in the export sector of Leather Industries in Asia. The head office of ILTA is also situated in this metro city of India. Here the prospect of enormous growth in Leather Industry makes Kolkata an important land mark in Leather World.

It has long been known for its literary, artistic and revolutionary heritage. Kolkatans tend to have a special appreciation for art and literature, its tradition of welcoming new talent has made it a "city of exceptional creative energy". For these reasons, Kolkata has often been dubbed as the "Cultural Capital of India".
